LET'S DECOR

AROUND THE WORLD

Maria Jesus Bordon Hisa

We are pleased to introduce the latest collection of chocolate decorations from the „Let's Decor Around the World” collection, part of the Art Print series. This delicious assortment is the result of a collaboration with Maria Jesus Bordon Hisa, an accomplished artist and chocolatier from Argentina. Maria's passion for experimenting with vibrant colours was ignited by the painting lessons during her interior design studies, and in 2015 she stumbled upon the idea of using cocoa as a medium for the artistic expression. With years of dedicated training and experience in the world of chocolate, this concept became an art form, and a way of life for Maria. Today, she crafts pralines resembling miniature artistic paintings at Franklin Chocolates, her atelier in Buenos Aires. The goal is to provide the guests with a comprehensive sensory experience, stimulating all five of their senses.

Enchanted and deeply inspired by Maria's vision, we joined forces to create five distinct sets of chocolate decorations. These designs mirror the captivating patterns painted by Maria and offer a delightful journey through the cities of the world, capturing their essence in colours and shapes. Explore the magnificence of golden Dubai, symbolized by elegant triangles which represent majestic skyscrapers. Dive into the allure of Florence, encapsulated within a sphere inspired by shades of purple and pink terracotta. Witness the essence of Buenos Aires through its iconic blue triangles dancing the tango alongside a raspberry-pink hue. Barcelona squares pay homage to the city's unique architecture and atmosphere, while Tokyo radiates joy with its saturated red and orange tones, symbolic of a happy and fruitful life.

We trust that the „Let's Decor Around the World” collection, with its rich colours and captivating shapes, will ignite your inspiration, bring smiles to countless faces, and infuse your sweets with positive energy and an air of artistry.

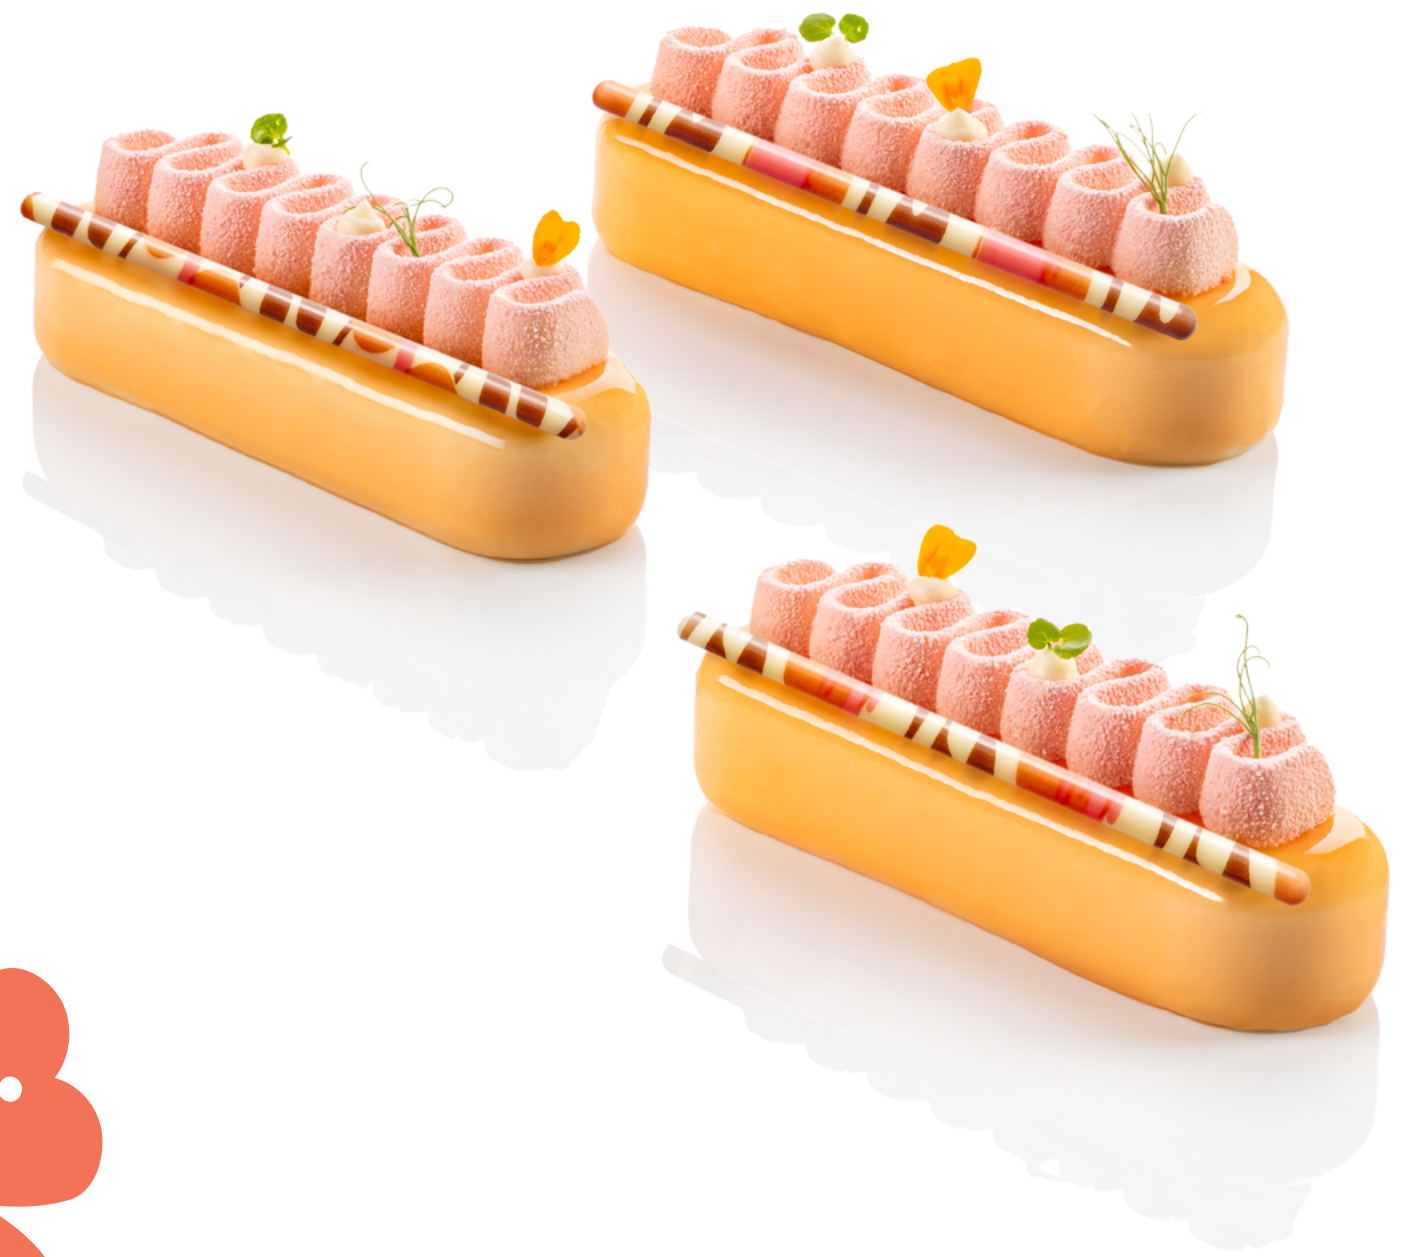

This collection is a tribute to Barbara Borowicz, the co-founder of Barbara Luijckx, a company shaped by her deep passion for travel and her profound appreciation for the fascinating diversity and nuances of people and places across the globe.
